EUCALYPTUS PAYCHECK

Resources depleted but
you gotta get over the moat.
It was better the first time
with a maxed out inner glow.
We're out of effigies
so I don the signature cap of a billionaire.
Bubbling up with my divining ram.
The source of my power
is my hairy big toe.
The source of my sadness
is when everyone fissures.
I'm from the big city, I only need a pill and I was born to impersonate. The chlorophyll runs infinite in your private stream.
Beyond the pearlescent scantron
I really think you should pay more
to keep the stolen spoils yours.
At the crest of a parted waterfall
let your heart lead the crushing
crisp smell of a plant you extincted.
